HARLEM RACING.

An accident marred the sport at Harlem yesterday. It happened in the third race, two horses Amyntas and Urganda going down with their riders just as the field was passing the half-mile ground.

The fall that the horses and boys got was a very dangerous appearing one, and a cry of horror went up from the stand. The horses were in the middle of a bunch of ten when the accident occurred and it did not seem possible that either of the boys could escape with their lives.

Amyntas, on the inside, was the first to go down and Urganda went headlong over her. When the boys were picked up, nearer dead than alive, it was found that Silvers, who rode Amyntas, had escaped with a broken arm and a severe shaking up. Reese, who rode Urganda, was not so fortunate, however, and was picked up unconscious. He was still in that state and delirious last night.

After the mix-up and falling a true result could hardly come out of the race. Little Singer, one of the choices, won with Red Gidd second and La Champagne third.

The racing in general was very tame there being only one finish that stirred up the least bit of excitement. This came out of the fifth event, George H. Ketcham, splendidly ridden by Bloss coming up with a rush in the stretch and stealing the race away from Free Hand, the favorite, on which Jockey Vitatos took another one of his famous naps.

George H. Ketcham was entered to be sold for $300, but "Cass" Sloan ran him up to $500. His owner, George Foster, retained him for the odd five.

The Devil is at his best now, and had an easy thing in the mile and twenty yards race. There was little or no fast pace the first part of the journey, and this was all in The Devil's favor. The consequence was that when it came to a sprint at the end he easily outfooted the others and won as he pleased from John Baker.

Huronion, long overdue, and at the juicy odds of 8 to 1, broke out of the maiden class in the first race. The filly got away in front and was never again headed. While at the post in this race T. Knight, who was on Wasanta, was unseated and his left arm was badly hurt. Holden was substituted for him after a long delay and rode a good race on the filly.

Ben Falk cleaned up good on the second race which was at a mile and one-sixteenth and had ten very ordinary horses as starters. Falk played Seattle straight, place, and to show all over the ring and after the son of Himyar or Tournament—Glide won he cashed in over $6,500. At one stage of the betting there was as good as 10 to 1 against Seattle. Silvers rode the gelding and going to the front as soon as possible after the start he made every post a winning one and after a drive at the end beat King's Guard about a half-length.

The last race furnished one of the surprises of the season. Mary Kissella at the false price of 40 to 1 cleverly beat Piccola. The latter was away off the better of the two but after getting away poorly Jockey O. Watson who rode or rather tried to ride Fintan carried Piccola almost to the outside fence on the first turn and interfered with her so badly that the filly could never get straightened out until the race was almost over. Such incompetents as O. Watson should have their careers cut short before they get a chance to ruin some horse or kill a good jockey.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A disastrous conflagration was narrowly averted at the Newport track at an early hour Saturday morning. In some way a fire broke out on the side of the track nearest the railroad, and three kitchens and about seventy-five feet of the fence, as well as two freight cars that had been standing just outside of the racetrack inclosure, were destroyed. Fortunately the fire was confined to the objects named, and was not communicated to the stables, only a short distance back.

Trainers and owners of thoroughbred yearlings at Lexington are in a predicament. Charles Green has barred the gates at the Kentucky Association's course and not a horse is allowed on the premises. Every summer for thirty years from 50 to 150 yearlings have been broken at the track, but none are being broken this year. Green has been offered as high as $4 per stall per month but declines all offers.

Jean Beraud is doing steady work and no further trouble is anticipated from the splint which necessitated his being stopped about a week or so ago. Mr. Paget, however, says that it will be a very difficult matter in the two weeks yet remaining before the Realization to get him into a proper condition for such a long distance race.

Dr. Carter, who is in charge of Mr. Pierre Lorillard's Rancocas, reports a splendid crop of yearling foals at this famous breeding establishment. Among those that he considers the best in this grand lot are Sensation colts, out of Pandora, Illogo and the Equality, while Sailor Prince has several grand lookers.

George Keene, of the Sydney Paget string, at Sheepshead Bay, is being schooled to go over the jumps.

Winner—Br. f. by Huron—Dollikens. Post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving. Huronia, long overdue, made the others look cheap. She was fortunate in getting away and always had clear sailing. Erla d'Or had good luck, too, and ran a fair race. The ride on Irene Hayes spoiled whatever chance she had. McCann got the filly shut off half a dozen times and made all kinds of bad luck for her. Diana Fonso had an easy race. Silvers did not seem to urge the filly in the stretch. Zeriba ran a fair race. So did My Eugenia—as far as she went. Wasanta stumbled and threw Knight in a false break and hurt the boy so badly that he could not ride. Holden was substituted. Scratched—Reade, 115; 12880 Aileen Wilson, 103; 11961 Fly Lotta, 108. Overweights—My Eugenia, 2 pounds; Wasanta, 2. Huronia, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Erla d'Or, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Winner—B. g. by Himyar or Tournament—Glide. Off at first break to a good start. Seattle was driven out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth were driving hard. Seattle beat a bad lot in an unimpressive way. Had the race been twenty yards further he certainly would have lost. King's Guard, after much bad racing luck, got through on the stretch turn and finished very strong. As the race was run he was the best and should have won. Sunburst, poorly ridden and on the outside all the way, ran a good race. He ran much farther than any other horse. Hosi came stoutly at the end. Mark him. He ran a fair race. Woodranger stopped badly at the end. Possum was jumped on and badly cut down. Uncle Abb was the cause. Yours Truly pulled up very lame. Scratched—12716 Winslow, 105; 12906 Sir Hobart, 102. Seattle, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. King's Guard, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Sunburst, show, 3 to 1. Possum, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. m. by Borgomaster—Maggie B. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third were driving just as hard. Little Singer was nicely handled and ran a good, game race. Narvaez had the filly in a good position all the way and brought her up with a rattle in the stretch. Amyntas seemed to stumble and fell at the half mile ground, and Urganda fell over her. Both riders were badly hurt. Red Gidd was fully extended to get the place. He is a coward. So is La Champagne, who had clear sailing and no excuses. Neuberger was obliged to take up when Amyntas and Urganda fell. This spoiled his chances. Bryan was not ready. Neither was Storm Queen. The latter had speed. Little Singer, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Red Gidd, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. La Champagne, show, 24 to 1. Neuberger, place, 7 to 5; show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Major Richards—Patagonia. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second and third driving. The Devil was much the best and won as he pleased. There was little or no pace in the race and when it came to a sprint at the end The Devil easily outfooted the others. John Baker seemed to stop on the stretch turn but came again under pressure. Lennepp stopped as if short. Molo can win when placed right. Corrected weights—The Devil, 105.

Winner—B. g. by Himyar—Miss Austine.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. It was a driving finish. Bloss clearly outrode Vitaoe. He caught the latter napping at the sixteenth post and stole the race. Free Hand got a running start and should have won. George H. Ketcham was fit and ready and ran a nice race. He was run up $300 over his entered price of $300 by Cass Sloan, but was brought in. Idle Hour finished strong. He is consistent these days. Warren Point made a strong bid in the stretch, but died away at the end. Diggs ran one of his bad races. Rouble was not ready. He had a lot of speed and will improve from this race. Kamsin is off. K. C. was pulled up at the start.

Winner—B. c. by Goldfinch—Abilene. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving. Goldone is a good game colt and ran a greatly improved race. Big Gun was slow to get in motion but closed resolutely. Eileen Daly's race was away above the mark. Her rider could not help Misericordia, and Estill was short. Herbert quit badly. His race was far below his previous efforts.

MacLeod of Dare is good and of the improving order. Lackland ran a greatly improved race. Survivor was knocked out of it on the first turn and lost many lengths. He would have been a contender but for this. Sublet is of no account.
